Bay State College Quick Facts

- Bay State College is a for-profit institution accredited by the New England Association of Schools & Colleges.
- Roughly 9 percent of our students hail from Massachusetts' 4th Congressional District.
- Two campuses: Boston's Back Bay and Middleborough
- The College was founded in 1946, originally serving the airline industry. Sixty-four years later we now offer a wide variety of Associate and Bachelor's degrees in Business, Entertainment Management, Fashion Design, Fashion Merchandising, Retail Business Management, Hospitality Management, Early Childhood Education and Criminal Justice. The Allied Health Department offers degrees in Nursing, Medical Assisting, Health Studies, and Physical Therapist Assistant.
- For the second consecutive year, Bay State College has been named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll (with Distinction in 2009), the highest federal recognition a college or university can receive for its commitment to volunteering, service-learning and civic engagement.
