Appeal Procedure

You are strongly encouraged to talk to your academic advisor before appealing your suspension.

Your appeal must be in the format listed below to be considered by the Academic Standing and Integrity Committee (ASIC) and all supporting documentation must be included with your appeal. Your appeal letter should be one to two pages in length and written in a professional manner.

- Paragraph 1. Provide detailed explanations for your lack of satisfactory academic progress. If you have previously been accepted back to Bay State College after an earlier suspension, explain the circumstances that led to your current suspension.
- Paragraph 2. Please describe which support services you used during the semester (tutoring, meetings with one of the College's advisors, College's personal counselor, etc.) If you did not use any services, please explain why you chose not to utilize support services at the college.
- Paragraph 3. Provide an explanation of how your circumstances have changed and how these changes will allow you to perform at a satisfactory level. Provide a detailed plan of action, including long term and short term goals, that you will follow to achieve academic success if you are readmitted to the college.

Make three (3) copies of your appeal. Keep one for yourself, email one copy to the Academic Standing and Integrity Committee Chair and one copy to the Director of Student Financial Services and Compliance. Appeals that are emailed may result in a more timely review. Therefore, when possible, email all appeals to appeals@baystate.edu.
