Bay State College prepares students for successful careers and global citizenship through academic rigor and individualized support. Currently we are seeking candidates for:

Adjunct Faculty for Health Science- Summer 2016 & Fall 2016 –Boston and Taunton

Job Responsibilities:

- Teach allied health students health or science courses (Introduction to Biology, General Microbiology, Anatomy and Physiology I, Medical Terminology, Medical Assisting)
- Maintain office hours in-campus
- Interact with students and colleagues in a positive and collaborative manner

Minimum Qualifications:

- Must have a master's degree in biological or health sciences (Note: A bachelor's degree may be accepted if the applicant has an RN, LPN, CMA or RMA credential, and will only be teaching medical assisting courses)
- Must have excellent undergraduate level teaching experience, preferably in a community college setting.
- Must be familiar with incorporating innovative technology in teaching

Please submit by email the following to rdarang@baystate.edu -Dr. Rosana Darang, Health Studies Program Chair. No phone calls please.

- Cover letter in the body of your email: Please address the following in your letter- (1) Your knowledge and expertise of the course (2) Your undergraduate level teaching experience. Include a list of courses you have taught in the past (3)Your lab and/or clinical experience, if any
- Attached resume/curriculum vitae with a list of three professional references on the last page

No other documents are required at this time. Please note that official copies of your transcripts must be submitted upon hire. No phone calls please.

It is the policy of Bay State College to provide equal employment opportunities without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation, genetic information or any other protected characteristic under applicable law.