Geoff Keith Gives Students Something to Laugh About

On Tuesday January 17, Bay State’s Campus Activities Board started off the semester by giving students a great laugh. Kicking off his six week College tour Los Angeles native Geoff Keith performed at the Lenox hotel for a crowd. Students were able to come out and start their semester by having some good laughs. With over thirty students in attendance the intimate setting alone Geoff to talk to the audience as they shared some funny experiences they encountered with ghost. Geoff’s act consisted of talking about college, relationships and his life living in LA. CAB would like to thank everyone that came out and hopes to see everyone at more events in the future. CAB’s next event will be February 29th at 31 St. James. They will be bringing acoustic pianist Kurt Scobie.
