INTERNATIONAL INTERNSHIPS FOR FASHION MAJORS

"CISabroad changed my life by presenting me with opportunities I would have never thought possible and allowing me to challenge myself in a way that's not possible. I was able to work in the field of my dreams in Spain while exploring the city that I believed was only a dream I would never achieve."

Eduardo Mendoza,
University of West Florida
Intern in Barcelona - Fall 2016

Intern in Australia

Role: Fashion Marketing with a Fashion Distribution Company

Interns will work with various departments to gain an in depth overview on the functions of a fashion distribution company. This includes working with the sales division, operation imports, debtors division, distribution, retail, and finance division. Tasks will include arranging appointments, data capture, contacting customers, merchandising, promotions, orders and invoicing, and much, much more.

Fashion Placement Examples

Intern in Florence

Role: Fashion Design at a Fashion & Accessory Design Company

Working with a local retail store, students will propose, design, and produce high quality garments and accessories for the sale. Duties include but are not limited to merchandise analysis for brainstorming, design proposals, and garment and accessory production in the laboratory spaces.

Intern for Credit!
Receive 3-12 credits through your home university or our partner university.

Intern in London

Role: Public Relations for a Fashion PR Company

Students will assist the main team during the lead up to a major fashion event. This can include meeting and greeting visitors to the showroom, working with the team to manage displays and enquiries, administrative tasks, as well as fashion press research, contact building and data management. This placement is ideal for those who are seeking to combine their passion for fashion with a love for communications to strengthen marketing and PR skills.
